And you are sure to find,
That when they make the race for bread They're never left behind.
And if you fail to give the boys Some earnest work to do, The bad results of after life Must be scored down to you.

ADVERTISE your holiday goods in the BULLETIN. We offer very advantageous terms.

The price of gas at Louisville, owing to sharp competition, has been reduced to $1 a thousand feet.

The farmers complain of the low price of hogs and corn, and think they are going to the poorhouse.

The prices of provisions are very low at wholesale but the retail prices seem to continue to hold their own.

The steamer W. P. Thompson, sunk near Rodney, Miss., Sunday night, has been raised and is again afloat.

The steamer Telegraph passed up yesterday for Pomeroy, in charge of Captain J. T. Campbell and her old crew.

The acts of the last Legislature have been received by County Clerk W. W.
Ball, and are ready for distribution among the magistrates.

Club will entertain their friends at Odd Fellows hall on Friday evening the 26th.

THERE was a false alarm of fire in the First Ward last night. Passers by imagined they saw a fire in the meat store of Mr. C. F. Zweigart, corner of Second and Short streets.

THE Vanceburg Courier says: Mr.
Mark Williams will shortly move to Mason County, having leased the Pelham farm, just above Maysville, one of the finest situations along the river.

A BALL will be given at Neptune hall on the evening of the 22nd inst, by the members of the company. It will be a private affair and only a few invitations will be issued outside of the company.

The ingredients of Wills' World Worm Candy are drugs that any physician would prescribe. It is a safe and reliable remedy for worms and should be used by all who require such a medicine.
Ask your druggist for it.

DR. G. W. MARTIN is a candidate for re-election as councilman from the Second Ward. He has served in the position for many years and has been a hard working and useful member, and has done much for the general good of the city.

MR. W. A. NORTON, who represents the Louisville Cotton and Grain Exchange, has opened an office in Cooper's building and is prepared to execute all commissions. He has arranged to receive every ten minutes during the day, market advices from Chicago.

REV. DR. ARCHIBALD, Presbyterian Evangelist, will preach at the Presbyterian Church Friday and Saturday night

THE Handy No. 2, now connects with the Scioto Valley railroad at Portsmouth every night, and by that means enables passengers to go directly through to Ironton, Ashland, the Big Sandy region, Huntington, Charleston and Richmond.
The quickest and best route East is to go by the Handy by way of Portsmouth.

DAVY CROCKET'S gun, one of the best rifles of its kind in the country, is now on its way to New Orleans to be exhibited at the exposition. Another gun, presented to him by the ladies of Philadelphia, is now in the possession of some of his descendants, at Crockett's Bluff, Ark., and has been seen and handled by the writer.

MR. LYON, one of the managers of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is in the city and has paid to Mrs. Mary Hoe-flich $2,500, the amount of a policy held in this company by her late husband.
Mr. Lyon will be here for several days, and will, with Mr. J. F. Brodrick, the local agent, call upon our citizens in the interest of the company.

THE Lexington Press says: Albert Johnson, a colored carriage blacksmith, who works at Baker's carriage factory, in this city, shipped to New Orleans yesterday a case of steel tools, etc., to be displayed at the great exposition there.
Johnson forged all the articles in the case himself, and they are marvels of beauty, finish and workmanship, and will almost certainly be awarded a medal.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Hannan, of Gallia County, O., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Plister, of the Fifth Ward, for the past week, returned home by boat last night, accompanied by Mrs.
Plister, who will visit them until after the holidays.

At a regular meeting of Washington

N. Rudy.

On the afternoon of the 10th instant, about three o'clock, while Len. Brierley and Ben. Curtis, two youths about fourteen years old, were out hunting, near Lewisburg, a gun in the hands of Brierley was accidentally discharged, the entire charge of No. 5 shot taking effect in the fleshy part of Curtis' hip making a very painful and ugly, though not necessarily dangerous, wound. They were only a few feet apart when the discharge took place.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Ky., December 8, 1884.

Editor Bulletin: If we are not greatly mistaken Dr. Burchard's speech will pave the drawing card he has had for many a day, although it drew the life out of the Republican party.

It has heretofore been the custom of strangers to hunt up Beecher and Talmage, now Dr. Burchard will be the man. It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good.

If the committee had known that Dr. Burchard was loaded, they would have handled him with more caution.

We had been of the opinion that General Grant was the most skillful man the Republicans possessed at making short speeches, but Dr. Burchard can give him two in the game and beat him.

Dr. Burchard ought not to be overlooked when the Democrats get to Washington. The old gentleman deserves well at their hands. Cleveland should by all means make him prime minister.

How would it do for the Democrats to present Dr. Burchard a silver service with the monogram, "R. R. R." emblazoned on it. It would certainly be a fitting testimonial of his great services to the party.

The imprecations of Republicans against Dr. Burchard on account of his indiscreet alliteration, are loud and deep, and it stands that gentleman in hand to be very wary or they may dispose of him something after the fashion that the Masons are reported to have served their man Morgan.

We see the Washington City news in the Cincinnati Enquirer confirms what we said as to McMurtry being responsible for Blaine's defeat, in that he put Dr.
Burchard forward to make that speech.
We have known something of Mac's capacity for conducting such affairs for more than thirty years, and knew pretty well whereof we spoke.

Items of Interest.

A chimney fifty feet, made of paper, has been erected at Breslau.

Sassafras oil, which is used for flavoring soap and soda water, costs $4 a gallon.

In Tasmania it is proposed to make it penal for a candidate to ask a man to vote for him.

Cocaine is more expensive than gold.
It commands $224 an ounce and $3,500 a pound.

A lobster yields from 20,000 to 30,000 eggs annually. The lobster is not pretty but its industry is unquestioned.

Watches were so rarely used in the time of James I, of England, that it was deemed a cause of suspicion that one was found in 1605 on Guy Fawkes.

It appears, in Shakespeare's time, one of the fashions of the day was the wearing of enormous roses on the shoes, of which full length portraits afford striking examples.

Teeth are appendages of the skin, not of the skeleton, and like other superficial organs are especially liable to be modified in accordance with the habits of the creature.

"To bite the thumb" at any person implied an insult; hence, in "Romeo and Juliet," Sampson says, "I will bite my thumb at them; which is a disgrace to them, if they bear it."

Two cases of the successful joining of divided nerves have been reported to the Paris Academy of Sciences, function being restored, in one case to a nerve which had been divided for fifteen years.

A student of the colors of flowers, M.
Schnetzler, contends that only one coloring substance exists in plants, and that the various colors of flowers are due simply to the modifications made in this substance by the acids or alkalies contained in the plants themselves.

Mr. Edison laughingly admits that when a young man he was a telegraph operator on the Grand Trunk Railway, west of Toronto, and was "bounced" because he allowed two freight trains to approach each other contrary to the rules, although there was no collision.

Of Persian painting there are no remains or information. The walls were, without doubt, plastered and colored.
If there had been a revetment of glazed tiles, according to the Mesopotamian practice, some fragment of this almost indestructible material would surely have been found.

In the year 1800, the canal connecting the Cooper River with the Santee River, South Carolina, twenty-two miles in length, was completed, and boats passed through it. It cost $600,000, a sum, it was said, seven times greater than the amount the province had sold for seventy-two years before.

COUNTY POINTS.

Slack.

Married, on the 8th instant, at the residence of the bride's father, in Slack neighborhood, by Rev. W. P. Harvey, of Harrodsburg, Mr.
Isaac Scott and Miss Mamie B. Gray. The day was bright and beautiful—a day suggestive of love and matrimony. To the credit of Mrs. Bettie Gray, the table was loaded with every delicacy and the seventy-five invited guests, consisting of relatives, friends and neighbors, gave every evidence of their grateful appreciation of the sumptuous repast.
After dinner the happy groom departed with the beautiful and happy and hopeful bride for Ohio to spend a few days of their "honey moon" with their relatives. A noting of this happy event would be incomplete without mentioning Mrs. Jake Slack, and Miss Mamie Slack, who aided the host and hostess in making the company even happier by their smiles and gentle and unrelenting attention.

This whale feeds by putting its gigantic strainer into operation as it swims through the shoals of minute molluscs, crustaceans and fishes which are constantly found at the surface of the sea.
Opening its capacious mouth and allowing the sea water with its multitudinous tenants to fill the oval cavity, the whale shuts the lower jaw upon the its horny plates and straining out the water through them, swallows the prey stranded upon its vast tongue.

When the ancient tower of Kukstaf Abbey fell, in 1779, Whitaker, a few days afterwards, discovered imbedded in the mortar of the fallen fragments, several little smoking pipes, such as were used in the reign of James I, for tobacco, a proof of the fact, which has been generally recorded, that long prior to the inroduction of that plant from America, the practice of inhaling the smoke of some indigenous vegetable prevailed in England.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighoring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant.
Blood, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanquo's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure.
Price 50 cents. Address Dr. Bosanquo, Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Geo. T. Wood.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Mayor.

We are authorized to announce HORACE JANUARY as a candidate for re-election to

A CARD.

To the Voters of Maysville: At the earnest solicitations of some of my friends, I have consented to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Mayor at the next city election.
To those of you with whom I am personally acquainted, I deem it unnecessary to speak of my character and my qualifications for the office I seek. You are all well acquainted with the duties and responsibilities connected with the office of Mayor, and in offering myself as a candidate for this the highest municipal office in your gift, I would say to you (who know me) do not give me your support in this race if you do not honestly think that I can and will, if elected, discharge the duties of said office in such an honest and faithful manner as will reflect credit upon all.

To those of you whom it has not been my good fortune to meet, all I have to say is inquire of my fellow citizens who do know me, and do not give me your aid and support unless you are satisfied, upon such inquiry, that I would, if elected, strive to make an able and efficient Mayor.

I consider it a high honor, indeed, to be the chief officer of your city. I have a full realization of the duties and responsibilities connected therewith, and let me assure you that the trust shall be faithfully executed if placed in my hands. Having come into this contest for the Mayoralty, I ask my friends for their hearty support. Any assistance rendered me remembered. Respectfully, December 8th, 1884. M. F. MARSH.
